USA celebrates 54-year anniversary of faking Moon Landing

It's another giant leap for mankind today, after the National Aeronautical and Space Agency (NASA) and the United States government celebrated its 54th anniversary of the great Moon Landing Hoax of July 1969.

The elaborate hoax (which was filmed in a Hollywood basement and duped millions of viewers on "live" television) involved meticulous planning and required the silencing of hundreds of thousands of key witnesses and involved parties for nearly 50 years. Even today, it has still got all but 'a few enlightened geniuses in camper trailers across the globe' totally fooled.

"It's incredible," said then project manager for the intricate cinematographic con, Philemon Greenscreen. "Still to this day, millions of people actually believe we went and landed on the moon. You can't imagine the amount of work it has taken to keep them all in the dark."

Thanks Gordon I was wondering about the provenance of the vid

Thanks newensign too. A short, succinct, vid that cover very familiar ground for me. With an interesting perspective on what the moon is too

The moon landing hoax is quite revealing about the "superpowers" relationship too, if you give it some thought

Yes Pete, it is one of the most concise with a lot of facts and no surplus verbiage.

Thanks Gordon and also for your clip of the mouse in a space rocket. Of course when they originally did the moon and space filming, photographic analysing was not so advanced as it is today, Hence they have accidentally lost a lot of photos!
